

2015

The quintessence of fullness

Service

Open 1 hour in advance
Serve at 16°C

Weather conditions

2015 was a mixed year. A sunny spring allowed the vines to flower well. August, on the other hand, was very wet, with more than 100 mm of rain, which delayed the growth of the grapes.

Grape variety

100% Malbec

Ageing potential

Drink it or cellar it (2024-2050)

TASTING NOTES

96/98
points
N3W

Deep ruby. Freshly picked redcurrant, raspberry, red cherry, black cherry, blackberry, Royal Gala apple, red plum, and blueberry brighten the palate.

Sage asserts itself as a signature of this terroir, while violet intoxicates. Cloves and cinnamon confirm the precision of the aging process, and tar and prune add complexity.

In this universe offering various layers of complexity, the fruits, highlighted by a precise balance between vibrant acidity and generous alcohol, shine. The present, chalky-grained tannins confirm the potential of this athlete in the making. The finish, rich, dense, and complex, resonates over time.